

Factsheet

Hides Gas Project

Resources

Project Title

Hides Gas Project

Location

Tari, Southern Highlands, PNG

Client

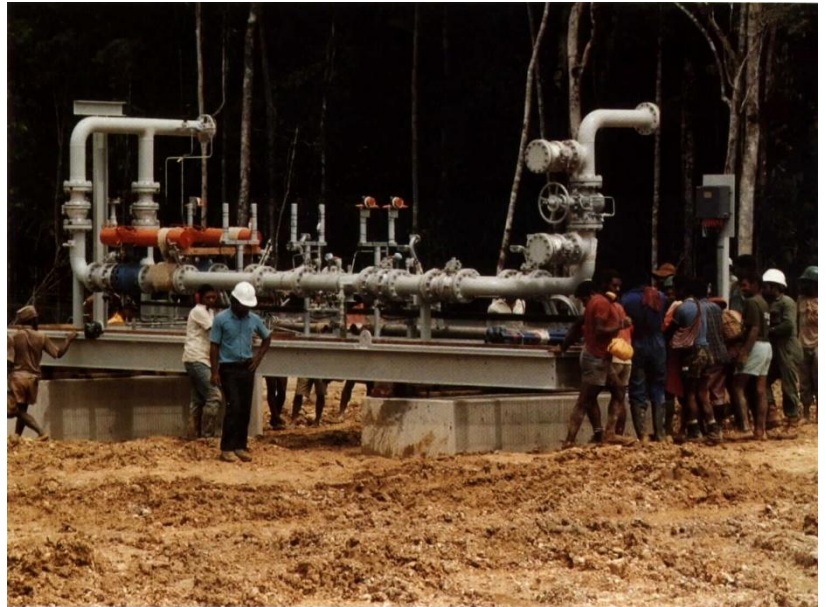

B.P Exploration

Project Type

Oil and Gas

Year Completed

1992

Project Description

Kramer Ausenco's responsibilities included the development of the Hides Gas Field to supply gas to the Porgera Power Station. Works included an 8 km access road, 100mm gas pipeline 12km long, well head works and staff housing area.

Kramer Ausenco worked in association with Kinhill in the provisions of engineering for the civil and building works during the construction phase. Topographic survey and construction set out of civil works. Other duties included supervision of direct labour, plant and contract administration for construction contracts.

Project Role

- Structural Engineers
- Civil Engineers
- Surveyors